

ALPHA CHI RHO - - - 1922 CONVENTION

Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, Philadelphia, February 23, 24 and 25

"MY FIRST BIG DATE OF THE YEAR"

LISTEN, BROTHER:—

Our Research Committee informs us that it takes 64 muscles of the face to make a frown, and only 19 to smile, so— DON'T WORK OVERTIME!

We wish we were present to see your smile grow as you read this.

We call your attention to Convention. Just an ounce of prevention and you will not be "so busy" as to deny yourself a REAL TREAT.

THIS IS WHAT THE 1922 CONVENTION MEANS:

1. By far the most important business gathering the Fraternity has ever held. Undoubtedly the question of expansion will be settled for all time. For the first time in our history, charters will be voted on finally by the Convention. Do YOU want Alpha Chi Rho to stretch her arms from coast to coast? Come and let's hear your thoughts.

2. It will be a SINGING CONVENTION. After this Convention, you will go to the office each morning whistling or humming Alpha Chi Rho Songs. Have you done it recently? Come and learn.

3. It will be a Convention run according to schedule time. Come and see.

AND THEN OH! BOY, LOOK—

THE GRAND WELCOME

will be given at the greatest Smoker we've ever smoked at. "Ed" Bailly, our "grand" president, and Provost Josiah Penningman, of the University of Pennsylvania, will greet the assembled gang. Then pandemonium will reign. We'll sing, listen to Phi Phi's Jazz Band, be entertained by Phi Mu and others, watch Brother "Jimmy" Cowen do tricks, etc.

SHORT PLAY—LONG DANCE

The Manufacturers' Club, across the street from the Bellevue, holds only thirteen hundred, but we don't mind being crowded. All brothers, their wives, sweethearts and friends will want to see the matrimonial fiasco, "An X-citing Party." Then will come the dance with a 10-piece orchestra and a mighty good one. It's going to be a real affair, with everybody dressed up and all.

TEA DANSANT

This will be the peppiest one yet, and realize that's saying more than a mouthful. We'll have the entire roof of the Bellevue—sun parlor 'n everything, all to ourselves. And then the tea, of course, will be very good.

AND THEN AN ALPHI CHI BANQUET

You know what that means. The whole gang of us sitting around the festive board, with plenty of real ALPHACHIRHOISM floating around in and among the tables. Brother John Dennis Mahoney is the best toastmaster you've heard in moons and the committee is inviting several Alpha Chis, of whom the fraternity is proud, to be the speakers. We know you're going to like the novelties in the entertainment. The Clover Room of the Bellevue will be a four-leaf one with pep, spirit, joy and enthusiasm doing extra duty.

ANNOUNCEMENT—SONG CONTEST

We want the Brothers to submit songs for this convention. They must be in the nature of parodies, that is, words written to some well-known tune. At the banquet the most popular song of the convention will be voted on and a prize given the winner. Entries close on February 17 and must be sent to the chairman.

THE ALPHACHIRHO-ETTES

want to be in on this big party naturally. Besides the two affairs above, they will have an opportunity to attend a dinner and theatre party on Saturday evening, for which you can make arrangements below.

ACCOMMODATIONS

We want to make them for you, if such is your wish. We can see that you get rooms anywhere you designate if you give us reasonable time. Don't rely too much on the last-minute stuff. You'll feel much better if things are pre-arranged.

IMPORTANT! AT THE STATIONS

you will be greeted when you step from the train. Watch for a brother with a pink and white carnation in his lapel. He'll give you any directions you need. Shake hands anyway.

AND NOW OUR REQUEST OF YOU

Send in the below card immediately. If you cannot come, write across the paper and let us know. There is one thing every Brother can fill out, whether he comes or not. Guess. This is an expensive convention from our standpoint; what it costs you won't cover expenses. We assure you there won't be a surplus this year. We'll be lucky to get through even.

Alphi Chi Rho will mean more to You and You will mean more to Alpha Chi Rho if You are "ONE OF THE 550 AT THE CONVENTION THIS YEAR."
